

The peace and quiet I have learned to enjoy since Wisconsin participated in the "NO-CALL" program must remain in effect. If I want something, I will know where to find it without someone interrupting my dinner in an attempt to sell me something I don't need. Please keep the "NO-CALL" program in effect without adulterating it to placate big business. Thanks!